Q. Do you remember what any of those topics were, where he would make this request, let's not email or message about it?

A. He promised me various things because I was working so hard for him, and I was -- and I'm -- I'm good at what I do; I'm good at advertising. I help my -- I help my clients grow.

So I did a lot of work for him. I mean, I was working so much, I was exhausted and -- but I kept going. You know, like I said, I took four days off in that whole time.

So Marcus promised me various things, he said he wanted to do various things for me, which I thought were very strange, and I wasn't comfortable with it, but he kept being very insistent upon it.

So, finally, I said, "Okay."

So Marcus said, "Melissa, I'm going to buy you any car that you want. Tell me what car you want."

And I'm like, okay this is really strange. So I just was, like, okay, whatever, didn't think about it.

And then he kept asking me over and over and over again, like, "Did you decide what car you want?" He asked me a lot. So it seemed like he was adamant on actually doing this.
